

advanced financial understanding

description	A five-day programme to give an understanding of finance to people who do not have a finance background. The programme deals with the basics, plus advanced accounting principles, creative techniques and budgeting.
who should attend	Anyone whose role demands an understanding of the basics of finance.
features	Financial Statements <ul style="list-style-type: none">• balance sheets, profit and loss and cash flow. Basic Accounting Principles and Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none">• fixed assets, current assets, financing, company taxation and cash flow statements. Group Accounts <ul style="list-style-type: none">• subsidiary companies, associated companies and merger accounting. Financial Statements Analysis <ul style="list-style-type: none">• reporting financial performance, earnings per share and accounting ratios. Creative Accounting Techniques <ul style="list-style-type: none">• off balance sheet finance, window dressing and currency mismatching. Advanced Accounting Principles and Policies <ul style="list-style-type: none">• foreign currency translation, post balance sheet events and contingencies, pension costs, overseas accounting practices, asset valuation and profit measurement. Budgeting <ul style="list-style-type: none">• control, planning and motivational aspects.
format	Tutorial presentation of ideas and concepts with the use of case studies and full participant inter-action, to identify how best to apply the understanding in the workplace.
benefits	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Improved financial awareness.• Increased ability to make decisions using financial information.• Improved planning and control of the business.

advanced financial understanding

For more details of our consultancy and training support

call us direct on 01235 770791

or fax us on 01235 766701

visit our web site at www.a-t.co.uk

Email us at training@a-t.co.uk